PhraseApp
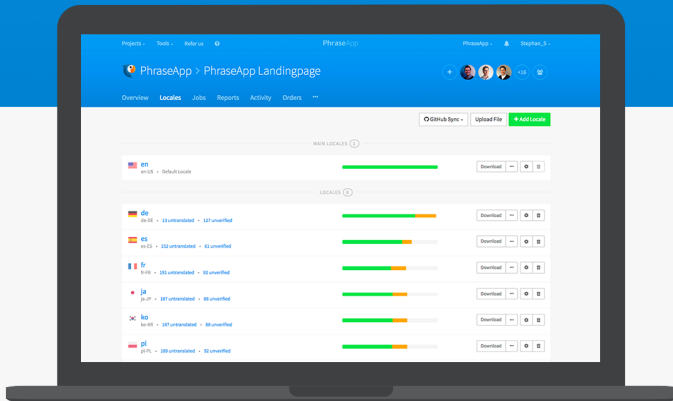

Start localizing software the simple way

PhraseApp is the translation management platform to streamline your localization process

What we offer

We offer a simple way to integrate a comprehensive localization solution into your existing process structures.

Bringing your team together on one platform to master localization is the key to our service solution.

Bring it all together
Organize your localization on a single platform

- Collaborate with your whole team online
- Invite as many team member as you like
- Let PhraseApp do the organizational heavy lifting

Adjust quickly
Cut your turnaround times in half right away

- No more cumbersome manual translation file integration
- Respond quickly to various changes in your source language
- Increase your agility with the help of our Translation Center

Raise quality
Review translations in a contextual environment

- Gain access to contextual tools to review the final product
- Work with our glossary and always apply the correct translation
- Improve consistency with our Translation Memory

Keep it simple
Simplify your localization with an easy process linkage

- Painless integration with tools like GitHub and Slack
- Import locale files, download locale files, tag keys all via our API
- Enjoy a transparent and user-friendly interface

Stay in touch
Communicate with all team members simultaneously

- Keep every one in the loop with our Notification System
- Use comments to address any local issue straightaway
- Notify external services through webhooks

Gain control
Always stay on top of your localization process

- Assign each member a dedicated role
- Review statistics on individual translation progress
- Implement advanced workflows to increase productivity
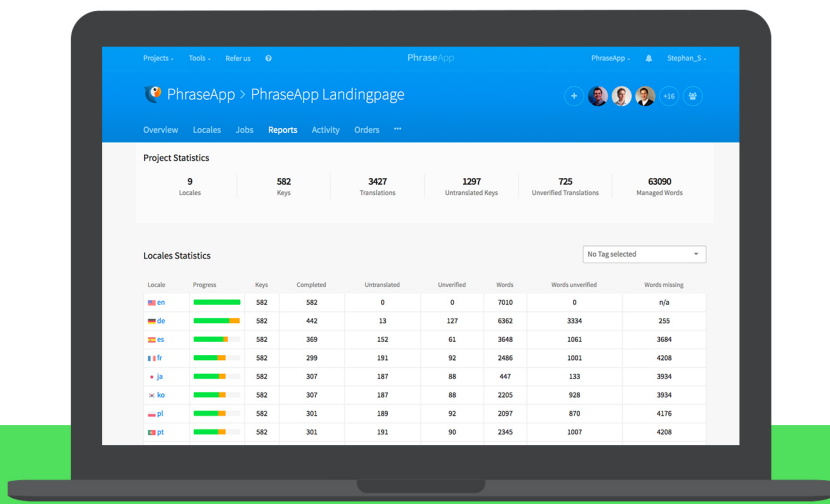

Trusted by

Bla Bla Car   XING   ROCKETINTERNET   ZEISS

FEATURES

- API
- In-Context Editor
- Translation Services
- Translation Memory
- Glossary

- GitHub Integration
- Cross platform Support
- Excel Import / Export
- Reporting

LOCALIZATION

We understand your frustration

Sending language files manually back and forth is simply taking too much time. Manual processes are decreasing your translation quality and lead to a wide range of disadvantages in your localization process.

- Binding a lot of resources
- Communication difficulties
- High degree of integration errors

Here is our solution

With PhraseApp you get a streamlined integration solution and efficient translation platform to bump up your productivity in no time. Provide your translators with an easy system and decrease your developer costs by saving valuable time with our simple integration process.

- Quick to learn system
- Realtime translations monitoring
- Effortless integration

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Which platforms and formats does PhraseApp support?

PhraseApp allows you to localize in nearly all programming languages - such as Ruby, Java, SWIFT, ObjC, PHP, Python, JavaScript and many more. We support all of the common localization file formats, providing you with a platform to work on every web, desktop and mobile applications.

Can I order translations via PhraseApp?

With PhraseApp you can either work with your own team of translators or just order professional translations from one of our translation partners.

What do I do if I have a problem?

Along with our comprehensive online guides, we provide an experienced support team to quickly address any problems you should encounter.

What does PhraseApp's pricing structure look like?

Our pricing is as flexible as our solutions. You can construct your individual plan based on your required feature packages and the amount of individual licenses needed. There are no restrictions on the amount of manageable words.

PhraseApp