Invoke curiosity, and have meaningful interactions with the candidates to generate more leads, more conversions and high quality candidates. With Socialise, every job posting on social media becomes a great branding opportunity and a superior talent experience.

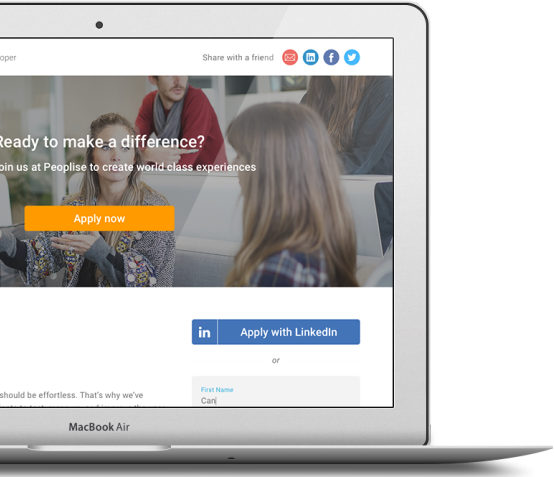

Post with Ease

Post your positions on all social media channels. You can preview, share your postings with hiring managers and get instant advice from Peoplise to maximise effectiveness.

Engaging Microsite

Unique, customizable, content rich web site automatically generated just for your position to attract, engage and win the talent over. Let your position and brand shine with job facts, testimonials, videos and much more.

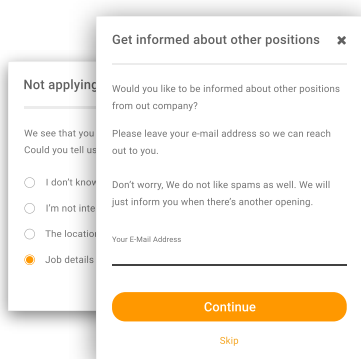

Talent Engagement Widgets

Don't let the talent get away. Own and manage the traffic by utilising built-in online digital marketing tools like re-targeting widgets and push notifications.

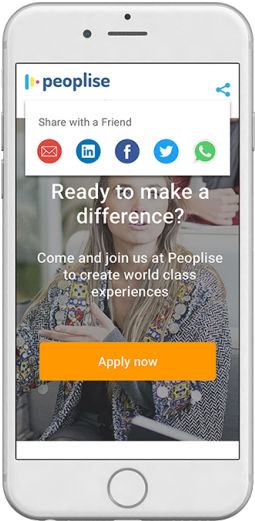

Opinion Surveys

Every hit on your site is a chance to improve and learn. Built-in surveys enquire about the process and your brand to get instant insight from your candidate pool.

Share-This-Job

Why not give candidates a chance to share the job posting with their friends? Make it easy and fun to share and help them get the word out.

Chat Bots

Don't let the volume of applications scare you. Our smart bots can engage thousands, guide them through their questions, minimizing uncertainties and ensure a great, transparent candidate experience.
