

Optimise your sales and marketing processes by analysing how content is read in real-time!

What is Tilkee?

TILKEE is a SaaS tool which alerts sales and marketing teams in real time as to exactly how, when and for how long any kind of documents (proposals, brochures, white papers etc), sent through any channel (email, linkedin, CRM, marketing automation), are read by prospects and clients.

because

60% of proposals are never followed-up on once added to your sales pipe.
Salespeople lose 26 mins every day on pointless follow-ups with uninterested prospects
Click and open rates don't allow for precise lead qualification & targeted, successful follow-ups*
