

Grow Your Bottom Line with RevenueStripe Email Monetization

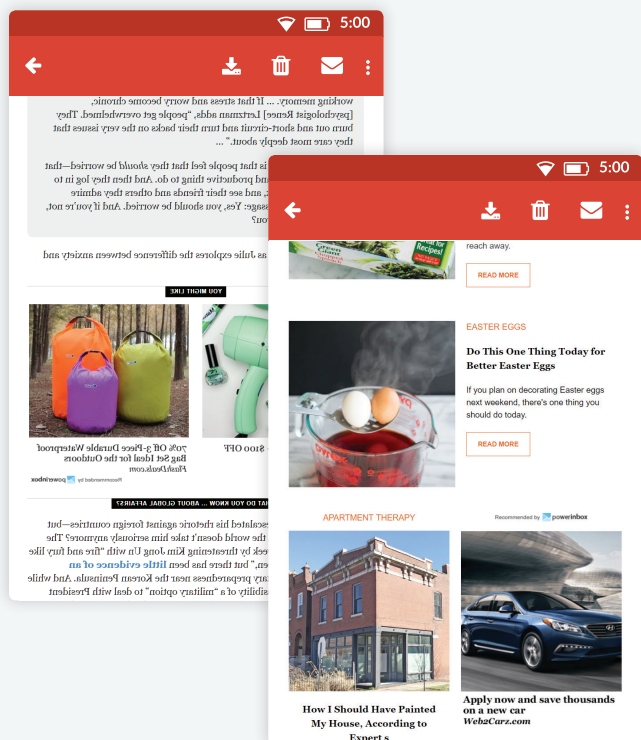

Send email campaigns that pay for themselves with automated placement of dynamic, personalized content for maximum audience relevancy and engagement.

Increase revenue with the channel consumers trust

As consumer trust in social media declines, and advertisers continue to pour money into Google and Facebook, publishers are struggling to maintain subscriber engagement and revenue. Before jumping to move your content behind a paywall and risk alienating even more audience, let RevenueStripe email monetization help you drive new revenue over the channel subscribers trust the most, putting you back in control of audience engagement.

PowerInbox Email Monetization

- Delivers relevant content, personalized at the moment of open for maximum relevancy
