

Planning is bringing the future into the present. To manage organizations' portfolio of investments all depends on the strategic plan, that will ensure success for the company.

Define your vision differently and state your objectives and future position, through Netways vision and strategy management system that will help you realize transform and execute this vision and make it reality.

Why customers use Strategic & Portfolio Management

- Invest based on priorities
- Share your plan with stakeholders and management
- Approval workflow
- Compare goals
- Map out the portfolio to see what you can handle from the your projects
- Aligned decision

Strategy Creation and Planning

- Outline your strategy and interpret it into objects that reflect your strategy goals
- Add objectives and business activities.
- Value creation

Central location for storing and managing project documents throughout the project lifecycle

Strategy Management and Implementation

- Control and Implement your strategy by watching over the progress of the projects and interfere when necessary to apply the needed changes.
- Assess, track, inform and continuously improve

Gain a consolidated view in one dashboard.

Netways Project & Portfolio Management

- Link the strategic plan with the portfolio
- Apply tools techniques and skills into the project activities to meet project requirements
- Define measure and monitor performance

Maximize your resource utilization