

PRODUCTS

AI Farm

BrainhintAI Farm is a complete environment for implementation of AI-based decision making in your organization. Developed based on experience with leading brands in a broad spectrum of business sectors, it enables to materialize promises of AI technologies by addressing major issues in AI projects, such as integration difficulties, poor quality and hardly accessible data.

Cost savings by Automation or support of analytic and controlling positions

Decisions made on time in a predictable manner

Automation of operations in areas requiring simple decisions making

Additional, automatic control layers in processes

Key functionalities

Hassle-free integration with your organization's applications

Ready-to-use models to create powerful decision-making engines for any situation

Implementation within days

Ready for cloud or on-premise implementation

