

Luware Stratus Architecture

Luware Stratus customers utilize Microsoft Federation and a SIP-Trunk connection. To run Luware Stratus, Direct Routing has to be installed.

In contrast to the call forwarding, this generates no connection costs, does not require any additional infrastructure on the customer's premises and maintains the caller's details through to the agent receiving the call.

