

PRO(a)ACT: Intelligent spend analysis

Transforms your spend data into actionable insights with advanced analytics

PRO(a)ACT helps purchasing departments to relieve them from administration so that they can focus on analysis and take advantage of their skills.

PRO(a)ACT clean, refine and categorize your costs automatically and give you time to analyze instead of administrating. With one click, you can explore your data in insightful dashboards and reports that makes it easy to find answers

Why customers use PRO(a)ACT

- Time saving
 - Focus on analysis instead of administration
- Advanced analytics
 - Transform your spend data to actionable insight
- BI as a service
 - No implementation or project cost, pay as you go

Cloud service

- Powered by Microsoft Azure to benefit from world class stability and security
- No implementation, no hardware and maintenance
- Flexible pricing, pay as you go

Improve your return on investment with BI as a service

True self service

- Insightful dashboards and report using Power BI
- Empower users with familiar self-service in Excel
- User-friendly interface to manage full control of the entire process

Increase your productivity by getting visibility with a few click

Advanced analytics

- Automatically clean, refine and categorize your data with advanced analytics
- Uncover deeper insight with Azure Machine Learning and R

Leverage your analytics capability overnight

With PRO(a)ACT we went from no visibility to full visibility overnight. Literally overnight, we uploaded our source data and started analyzing directly.

