

ezidox™
easy document collection

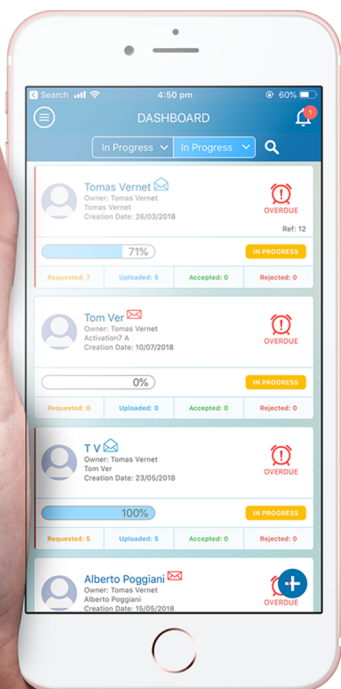

FASTER TRANSACTIONS HAPPIER CUSTOMERS!

Anyone who collects documents from customers knows how difficult and tedious the entire process can get. Some documents arrive as email attachments, some as paper documents and some just never seem to arrive. Chasing and processing documents is time consuming and frustrating for everyone involved. Keeping your whole team updated with progress is even harder.

ezidox™ knows exactly what documents are required for any transaction, process or service your business provides, as well as what documents need to be sent out to your customers.

ezidox™ gives your customers all the tools they need to help them capture and deliver everything you need securely and efficiently, ready for use in your internal systems.

How can your business benefit from ezidox™?
