Application Migration to Azure Marketplace

SELA will with your team to analyze your current application architecture and propose a future architecture for your application on Azure marketplace.

After the preliminary analysis a summary of architectural considerations is issued by SELA. After the implementation, your application will be available in the Azure Marketplace.

For more information contact us at: info@sela.co.il