

InfoPath to PowerApps Conversion Assessment

- This engagement will be kick off with a discover session where we research your existing InfoPath implementation across the enterprise.
- Licensing options of alternatives solutions will be evaluated, and budget breakdown shall be provided.
- Existing data connection and data sources will be documented, and best practices shall be recommended.
- Security and Compliance related requirements as per your enterprise's need will be documented. During the Implementation phase, these requirements shall be addressed.
- A checklist based on your enterprise's need will be developed that would address the design, development, deployment & maintenance of the PowerApps environment.
- At the end of the one day assessment, will shall provide the Level Of Effort (LOE), documentation & related timeline for performing the Implementation.

NewWave is a full-service Information Technology (IT), Business Services, and Data Management enterprise. We specialize in merging government and industry through state-of-the-art technologies. We help businesses win new value by solving their business challenges with innovation. Outcome-driven teams analyze your business requirements and provide innovative solutions with value-added services in digital transformation, cloud optimizations, cloud migrations, cybersecurity, and training.