First-line
Workers

Communication Square's First Line Workers System is new productive Azure & Cloud based solution that helps every IT Director utilize a scalable solution that connects to their workforce utilizing voice, video and chat. This comprehensive briefing will help you better understand how to promote first line workers' remote participation in town hall meetings, enable employees to find and build on the work of others, and tap into data from first line activities for new insights. This briefing will cover all the details of this exciting Microsoft Azure & O365 integration productive solution! During this 1-hour briefing we will discuss: * Why First Line Workers are lifeblood of your business * Why you must secure the data in hands of your First Line Workers * How to secure First Line Workers data and increase business productivity using simple solution that hardly requires training Contact us now to watch the Briefing at your convenience!