

Connect with Customers Worldwide via SMS

With direct connections to 650 global telecom partners that connect to 65% of the world's mobile devices, we successfully deliver over 100 billion messages a year.

Your business challenges

Lack of customer traffic and engagement

Your business needs to build a pipeline of opportunities by attracting new and retaining existing customers across the globe.

Unsatisfactory customer experience

Bad customer experiences can risk your future business. Customers want to choose how they communicate on a channel they're familiar with to feel heard and receive important information fast.

Poor efficiency

Inefficient processes, poor communication, and keeping on top of regulations can slow down daily activities and affect your business goals, objectives, and ultimately ROI.

Key advantages of our SMS solution

Easy to integrate

Use a single unified API to effortlessly integrate into your existing business workflows and build efficient SMS campaigns.

Quality connections

Get access to our secure infrastructure in 190 countries with the advantage of low-latency, and high-speed delivery, and increased reliability.

Intelligent delivery

Intelligent routing and redundant connectivity ensure your messages follow the best delivery path with the lowest latency. Giving you the benefit of quick and successful deliveries of every message, every time.

Globally compliant

Our built-in compliance engine is constantly updated with the latest worldwide and in-country regulations and operator requirements. Ensuring your messages are compliant.

Fraud protection

Protect your customers with enhanced identification features, including verified SMS, dynamic sender IDs, and user authentication tools – as well as 2FA and one-time tokens.

Real-time analytics

Get real-time analytics at your fingertips, including delivery reports. So, you know exactly what your customers have received.

Don't underestimate SMS

Alerts and authentication

Maximize account security with multi-factor authentication. Use one-time PINs to add an additional layer of protection to your customer journey and be protected against fraud.

Coupons and discounts

Promote your products by sending personalized coupons to existing or potential customers and increase sales.

Win back customers

Send a text to win back cart abandoners and entice them to complete their purchase. Once they've completed the purchase, send an order confirmation.

Transaction and delivery notifications

Keep your customers up to date with order confirmations and their delivery status for a better customer experience.

Collect customer feedback

Create surveys and collect direct customer feedback to help improve your product or service and grow your business.

Engaging reminders

Send personalized reminders of important events, appointments, or payment due dates, to drive sales and build customer loyalty.
