

Customer Service Management

Knowledge-centric complaint handling system supports incident-based services through SLAs. 24/7 self-service portal helps customers find answers and save time and money on support calls. Customers and support agents receive real-time case status alerts. Feedback happiness meter shows customer satisfaction level. Reports and 360 dashboards improve operational efficiency across the value chain.

