

Trejhara is a public listed entity with presence in multiple countries and founded by the promoters of the Technology giant Aurionpro Solutions Limited. It is a public listed technology products and solutions provider that helps enterprises Accelerate Digital Innovation, Securely and Efficiently. We employ domain and technology experts across Asia, Middle East, Africa, North America and Europe. We have been consistently recognized amongst the top 100 technology solutions providers.

Our products are focused to help organizations accelerate their digital footprint and customer experience through interactive presentation and offline analytical capabilities. We assist our customers, dealers, and partners for their needs and goals.

Interact DX – Trejhara's flagship Customer Communication Management Product Suite is an innovative platform in the digitization space. It provides comprehensive, interactive, personalized communication including Audio-Video communication across multiple domains.

Interact DX provides all types of customer communication as well as interactive marketing communication to assist organizations to improve on customer engagement and satisfaction. It processes customer communications such as bills, statements, targeted advertisements, policy kits, welcome kits, receipts, loyalty/rewards, advisory/notification alerts, reminders, audio-visual messages, and more. These are delivered across multiple channels such as Email, web, mobile, print, kiosk, social media (WhatsApp) and more.

Interact DX is a comprehensive, interactive, personalised communication suite which helps organisation to curate, design & broadcast all types of communication including those for marketing, product introductions, welcome letter /kit, bills, statement, policy details, renewal notifications, claims correspondence, documentation, bill & payment notifications delivered across Email, web, mobile, print & social media

