

Sked24 is a cloud based management platform designed for medical service providers. Using our software results in a big increase in efficiency for resource usage within medical clinics and patient loyalty.

We craft all our new features based on discussions with each of our customers. By doing this we are succeeding in growing the number of patients, increasing the usage of digital channels and optimizing the usage of resources.