

App for plant construction, building technology, utility engineering and crafts

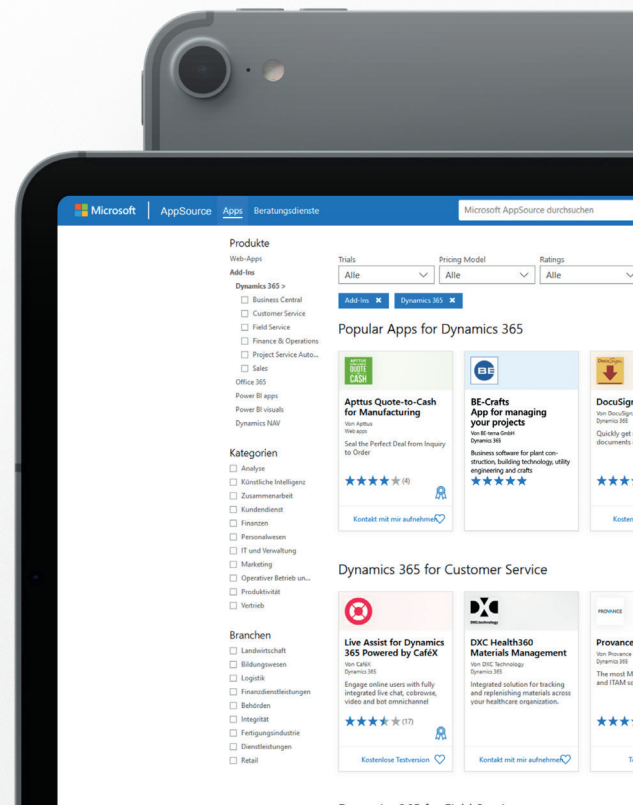

From calculation to final invoice – BE-Crafts supports you in successfully managing your projects.

BE-Crafts is a business app for plant construction, building technology, utility engineering and crafts. With BE-Crafts you can organize, coordinate and control your construction projects perfectly at all times.

Your business processes are efficiently coordinated and mapped in your ERP software. All functions are fully integrated in Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central. This means that all the data which is needed for an effective project management is available to you in real time.

As fully integrated end-to-end solution, BE-Crafts offers the extensive functions of the internationally proven standard solution Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central to medium-sized companies. This software package offers the convenience and security of a globally successful ERP software in combination with extensive industry functionalities for the ancillary construction industry.

Benefit from our industry know-how and the globally successful ERP platform Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central.

The BE-Crafts add-on provides you with exactly the functionalities you need to successfully complete your projects. Calculate your success - with BE-Crafts!

Functions and benefits:

- ✓ Fully integrated into Microsoft Dynamics 365 and certified by Microsoft
- ✓ Full-text search for all your data - like documents, addresses, and items
- ✓ The BE-Crafts app can be expanded by adding various additional modules
- ✓ fast and easy to learn, easy to use
- ✓ All common interfaces for your daily work are included
- ✓ Safe, reliable and inexpensive

