team journeys

Microsoft

Mirro is a HR SaaS solution for companies and their people, which focuses on individual and collective performance based on continuous feedback and collaborative patterns.

The vision around Mirro is to connect leaders with their teams in an open and receptive manner. It is the guide which helps leaders to better understand their teams and help their colleagues grow alongside each other, building positive and ever-evolving team journeys.

Mirro features continuous feedback components, soft-skills and job-specific skills evaluation, performance reviews, one-to-one check-ins, objectives and key results appraisal in order to facilitate a complete performance overview. Furthermore, the solution also sets out to offer the most user friendly tools to cover the day-to-days related to people's relationship with their employer.

Mirro is fully scalable and features a self provisioning and self implementation setup, offering customers a cost effective pay-as-you-go solution.
