

Expertos en Soluciones Empresariales

Integral solution for service stations

The DynCloud Gas 365 solution increases the operational efficiency of gas stations, manages the entire supply chain from its headquarters.

DynCloud Gas 365

DynCloud Gas 365 is a specialized solution for service stations. The system instantly replicates all the information of an organization to be able to make informed, supported and based business decisions based on updated sales data.

- Costs reduction
- Centralization of operations
- instant data replication
- Allows business decision making based on updated sales data

Customer Support

- Fast and precise transactions at the point of sale
- Faster attention, staff will use a single and simple graphical interface
- Rewards for your customers with loyalty programs and offers in different sales channels

Management and control

- Real-time overview of points of sale, storage systems, inventory and merchandising
- Ability to schedule automatic price changes from the headquarters
- In-depth analysis of sales and results

Optimization

- Implementation of flexible pricing structures to maintain competitiveness
- Streamline processes by automating suppliers
- Increase the profit margins of the fuel to determine the optimal price

Increase your profit margin with a integral solution for service stations