

Central platform for professional project management and effective task and document management

Integration of all Microsoft Office applications and external systems

Easy and secure operation in the extranet

Support of internal and external teams

Central availability of project-relevant information and responsibilities

Task and document management

High user-friendliness and roll-based cockpits

Central platform for professional project management and effective task and document management

Roles-based cockpits summarize all user-specific data

Documents from SharePoint document libraries can be directly linked to activities

Always the most current status overview at different detail levels via traffic lights

Established project methodology as a basis

Security in project management

Future-proof investment