Welcome to SphereShield for Skype for Business 2015 and 2019 Knowledge Base

the Knowledge Base has 3 parts:

Design and Installation

In this part, you will be able to read everything you need to know about preparing the SphereShield for Skype for Business environment.
This part of the KB will become handy when you are planning your SphereShield for Skype for Business environment and when you are ready to install it.

Configuration and Maintenance

In this part, you will be able to read everything you need to know about enabling the product's features.
This part of the KB will become handy when you have already installed SphereShield for Skype for Business environment and want to start working with it.

Troubleshooting

In this part, you will have the information required to work with our support team.

This part of the KB will become handy when you have any question related to the use of SphereShield for Skype for Business environment.

We also have how-to articles for common use cases - these are end-to-end guides that will walk you through the design, installation and configuration of your SphereShield for Skype for Business environment.