

Mission Planning: Plan and Execute

ABOUT PROPEL

Propel assists businesses and entrepreneurs to accelerate product innovation and development, helping to capture business and market opportunities faster.

WHAT WE OFFER

Most product ventures fail in execution, not strategy. Propel are experts in helping clients leap the chasm between product strategy and execution. Our team of technical and product experts will ensure your strategic plan is 'execution ready', with clear focus areas, measurable objectives and clarity on the required capital investment, technology and resourcing inputs.

For Microsoft customers, our solution architects will advise on the best implementation practices for Azure to ensure a cost effective, reliable and scalable hosting solution.

- Solution architecture
- Azure hosting options
- User story mapping and identification of high value 'slices' for iterative delivery
- Product roadmap and prioritisation
- Recommended team topology
- Product operations support and advice
