Ensono's Mainframe Data Assessment: Make More of Your Data

Ensono Mainframe and Azure Data & AI Assessment Strategy

Ensono is a relentless ally dedicated to helping organizations evolve and innovate their business for ongoing success. From mainframe to cloud, we work with you to make better happen—faster.

WHAT WE OFFER

Our Mainframe Data Assessment extracts maximum value from your mainframe data through Azure-powered integration and transformation.

Key differentiators

- Seamlessly migrates and incorporates mainframe data into Azure for reduced mainframe resource consumption and costs.

- Harnesses Azure's robust and scalable data solutions for rapid deployment, intelligent reporting, and predictive analytics.

- Unlocks the potential of historical data with AI/ML models—generating new insights and enhancing decision making.

Key outcome

Transformation and integration of your mainframe data into Azure—minus the significant costs and high resource consumption.

Get started on your data strategy journey with Ensono today.

See what customers are saying:

"When designing and building these kinds of systems, you need specialist advice from a best of breed cloud partner. With their expertise in cloud-based hyperscale transactional systems and their previous work on customer identity management, we trusted Ensono to help us in our next stage of growth."
