

HUMAN RISKS

Total Overview - Always Updated

www.humanrisks.com

Human Risks gives security professionals an updated overview of risk levels, security controls, incidents and internal audits.

Stuck with piles of spreadsheets? Writing the same threats and controls repeatedly? No ability to access, compare or report on updated data across multiple sites?

Our platform is scalable, uniform & flexible:

- Create professional risk assessments with half the effort.
- Report on automatically updated security KPIs with our Dashboard and .pdf reports.
- Identify & report on the level of compliance with your minimum security requirements.

An Integrated Security Risk Management Solution

We provide you with an updated overview of all your risk assessments and allows you to compare level of risk, compliance with internal security standards and cost of all activities.

Our platform supports the entire ISO31000-process with automated features and live external data. As a security manager that needs to stay updated, report to management or customers this is all you need!

Why?

Updated Overview

View all assessments in one place.

Compare and report on level of compliance with security standards.

Receive notifications of relevant actions.

Stay updated with live security incident reports - globally.

Reduce Cost

Automatically match minimum security standards with type and risk category of assessment. Automate manual processes.

Save Time

Create assessments using your own or our templates. Reduce the time by 50-75%

Involve Stakeholders

Invite contributors, customers or other stakeholders to updated live data.

TESTIMONIALS

Scandinavian Food Production Company

»Human Risks allows us to standardise and compare our risk assessments across multiple sites, which gives a perfect overview of level of implementation of our security standards.

Global Furniture Retail Chain

»Human Risks has really improved our overview of all security related challenges and solutions.

»Human Risks saves us valuable time, which I can spend on important tasks and not tedious manual tasks.
