Human resources: Find the best applicant for a given job position

Too many cover letters and not enough time to study them? Or perhaps, important information is hidden in the text, but you are not able to decipher it. In both cases, the StyleMatcher can help you find the best applicant for a given position efficiently and accurately.

CHALLENGES

As they say, paper never refused ink. How can we verify that traits claimed by a candidate are real? Is it possible to reliably recognize a candidate which will fit in our company culture?

IDEAL SOLUTION

Revealing relevant personal traits as well as other essential information about applicants by analyzing their cover letters, CVs or other written communication (of course if permission is granted). Solution is based on stylometric analysis.

DESIRED OUTCOMES

Unbiased selection of the best applicants based on data rather than personal impression or pure luck.
