Competitive assessment using Brillio's Payer competitive intelligence tool for a US-based managed healthcare company

The implementation was limited to Service code-based rate comparison for the MRF data loaded, against 4 competitors & the respective Medicare fee schedule

Identified and loaded up to 5 payer MRF data for service level comparison for the identified market

Compared contract rate and allowed amounts for few identified most frequented services

Provided insights to market team based on the analytical comparison