An international IoT solution provider
Exploiting a vertical application on all Cloud Computing

Solution provider

- Commercializes network solutions for the Internet of Things with the production of LORA antennas
- Customers: public and private operators, designers of connected equipment
- 200 employees

Challenges

- Strengthen their position as a global provider of IoT network solutions
- Gain responsiveness to deploy new IoT projects and meet their customers' proximity and agility challenges
- Leverage external expert expertise to migrate and automate business application deployment
- Understand the different existing technologies

Solution

Professional Services & DevOps via 2 dedicated experts to migrate and automate the application on a Iaas

Design and build the cloud architecture to support the cloud native application

- Expert support in setting up a pilot for version 2 of the platform

Benefits

- Boost Cloud and CNA adoption with our experienced experts
- Optimize underlying cloud infrastructure by implementing DevOps and Cloud Native Application best practices
- Rapid international deployment in any geography and for any infrastructure
- Deploy infrastructure to the closest customer location within their hosting constraints