

Ensono Azure Virtual Desktop Managed Service

Building Virtual Desktop Infrastructure without the costs

The Ensono Azure Virtual Desktop Managed Service puts you in control – optimising your infrastructure to drive rapid application deployment, patching and upgrade, to effectively manage costs, and deliver the high security environments you need to protect your organisation and its data.

Construct your environment

Simplify management, reduce costs

Taking advantage of Microsoft's access layer components, our comprehensive Desktop as a Service model delivers the agility, control and availability you need to adopt with confidence.

User Layer

Access Layer

Resource and Management Layer

Microsoft Partner

Azure Expert MSP

Is Azure Virtual right for you?

Are you ready to embrace the business benefits of a modern, flexible and lower-cost VDI?

Get in touch to find out if Azure Virtual Desktop is right for you and learn how our managed service can help at info@ensono.com

ensono®

Business drivers for Azure Virtual Desktop

- Secure BYOD and remote connect across your enterprise
- Significant cost savings compared to other VDI options.
- Scale up and down to align OPEX to business usage

Optimise and manage with Ensono

- Cost control through a fully managed DaaS
- Rapid application delivery, patching and upgrades
- Integration with existing on-premise and cloud apps and resources
- Proactive security, data protection and compliance