In search of the right IT strategy

Customers face the challenge of selecting the proper strategy for IT infrastructure development. In connection with the growing demand for computing power and the volume of the processed data, the existing ways are becoming sub-optimal in terms of costs and functionality.

Compliance with regulations on sensitive data processing is another major aspect.

Challenge

The main challenge is to develop a long-term IT strategy that meets the business and technological requirements and enables compliance with regulations on medical data processing.

Solution

Application of cloud-based MS Azure solutions helps the Customers to optimize the costs and reduce the products' time to market, as well as enables the use of the IT services that are unavailable under the standard on-premise model.

Value added

Chmura Krajowa is a reliable Partner for joint development of the strategies and roles of cloud-based services in Customer's environment. Moreover, it has the experience in deployment of cloud-based projects in regulated sectors.
