

Power BI Builder Training

Expand your Capabilities in the Area of Data Analytics

About the Power BI Builder Training:

The Power BI Builder Training is a comprehensive introduction course covering data modeling, visualization, reporting, and collaboration. Participants learn to connect data sources, build KPIs, and utilize mobile alerts and sharing, while engaging in presentations, demonstrations, and practical exercises for hands-on experience.

Target Group:

Future Power BI developers interested in learning basic Power BI reporting skills

Goal:

Empower participants with fundamental Power BI skills for data modeling, visualization, reporting, and collaboration

Duration:

18 hours in total

Module 1

Why Power BI?

Introduction to the Power BI tool, foundational concepts of business intelligence and data analytics.

Module 2

Extract, Transform, Load

Focus on data import, cleaning, and transformation using Power BI's ETL capabilities.

Module 3

Data Modelling

Discover how Power BI can help to create efficient and scalable data models and insightful KPIs.

Module 4

Visualize

Explore the creation of clear and impactful data stories by leveraging interactive visualizations.

Module 5

Leveraging the Service

Introduction to Power BI Service, learn how to publish, share and collaborate with colleagues on reports.