SIGMA'S ORGANIZATION PHILOSOPHY

Sigma's organization philosophy is to combine a strong local presence at the customers with a global reach and capacity to scale – “Local Drive – Global Strength.”

In practice, our local presence at the clients' main R&D hubs combined with the global capacity and operations give Sigma possibilities to tailor the services to fit the customers' need at each of their R&D sites.

The global strength also includes the capacity to set up new operations at strategic sites as a part of our ongoing business. A flat organization model brings agility and is inclusive, supportive, and entrepreneurial – with the customers and individuals at the center.
