

Holo4Labs connects the power of HoloLens 2 with Thermo Scientific™ SampleManager LIMS™, giving scientists today the opportunity to work in a lab of the future!

Solution4Labs provides services for the implementation and customization of LIMS class systems to the specific needs of the laboratory. We specialize in creating custom modules integrated with the LIMS systems of leading suppliers and matching them to specific customer needs.

WHAT WE OFFER

Save time and money

Holo4Labs saves you time and money on inefficient, mundane tasks. Quickly scan samples QR code or barcode, get the data you need, and store it for further analysis in the LIMS software. With your hands free, you can focus on your tasks.

React immediately

With every information you may need available, you can react to changes as they occur. Analyze samples, have better control of the process, maintenance the equipment, share information, or even work remotely with your peers.

Neutralize mistakes

Having a real-time insight into the research process in front of your eyes step by step, you can neutralize mistakes before they even occur. Holo4Labs means safer and higher quality work for scientists. Keep high quality certified standards in laboratory.

Microsoft Azure

Holo4Labs leverage from Microsoft Azure features. Data is stored in secure Azure Cloud environment. Application is using Microsoft Dynamics 365 Remote Assist along with Microsoft Teams. Azure guarantee that your data is save.

WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS ARE SAYING

“Crucially, analysts can keep their hands free to continue lab work instead of switching between lab work and the LIMS, driving organizational efficiency. We are excited to work with Solution4Labs on this innovative capability which will allow our customers to move toward the Lab of the Future.”

– Bob Poole, Commercial Leader Informatics, Digital Science, Thermo Fisher Scientific
