

Secure Remote Meetings

Keep your remote meetings safe with our fully automated and advanced authentication tools

It is easy to feel confident with our resilient authentication solution that safeguards online business conferences. Completely immune to unwanted intruders and fully compliant with the latest GDPR regulations.

What is the Secure Remote Meetings feature?

Our feature verifies that the user's identity is genuine and ensures that only your designated guests can enter the virtual room, allowing for sharing internal company information without a shadow of a doubt.

Highest Security

- Additional user authentication levels
- Multiple authentication credentials supported
- Advanced certified technologies
- Protection from vulnerabilities

A reliable method for meeting organization

Fast and Simple To Use

- Effortless meeting organizing and set-up
- Compatible with most videoconferencing platforms
- User authentication in under 60 seconds
- Translation of processes into any language
- Cross-device functionality
- No additional integration or IT resources needed

Hassle-free processes that save time and money

Why customers use Secure Remote Meetings?

- Fully automated and effortless user authentication
- Secure meeting rooms that are managed by the host
- Compatible with most virtual conference platforms
- 0% intruder tolerance
- Compliant with latest GDPR regulations

Trusted Environment

- Designated attendees and guests
- Complete privacy and confidentiality
- No background monitoring
- Supports all major browsers and devices

A safe space for internal information sharing

“This collaboration is one of the most successful examples of cooperation between private and public sector entities. Particularly complex and sensitive decisions on authentication, voting and other subtleties of the Parliament proceedings were quickly implemented.”

- Parliament of the Republic of Lithuania