

User stories

Presidential Palace

The airbeld installed at the Presidential Palace is shown here in the hands of Nikos Christodoulides, the President of the Republic of Cyprus.

Nicosia Municipal Theatre

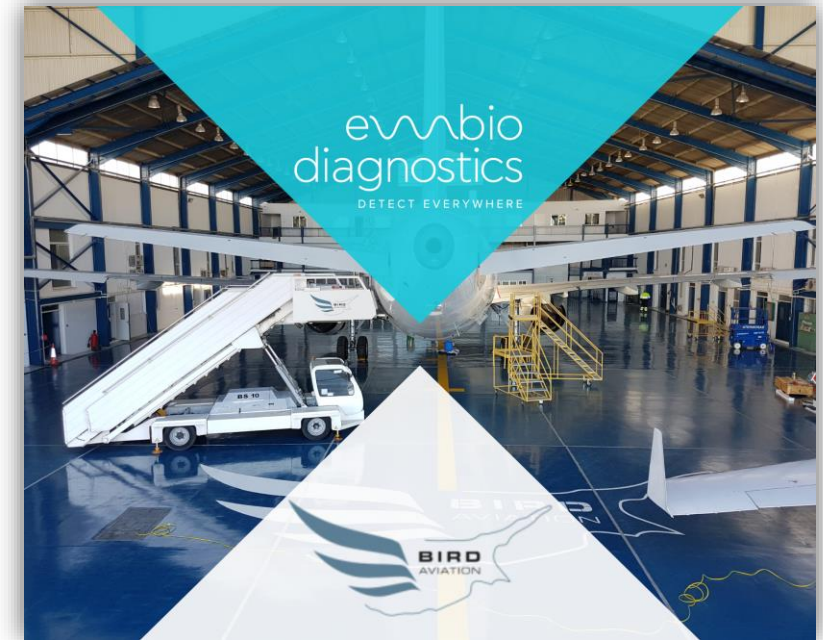

For ensuring performer and guest safety, they can enjoy performances without worrying about their health and also optimize energy efficiency.

PPD Global

Our client, PPD Global, a member of the Photos Photiades Group of Companies, has earned second prize at the 'Example of Good Practice Awards' of the Cyprus Health and Safety Committee for the Workplace as a result of their outstanding company practices! Their award-winning initiative titled 'Indoor Workplace Air Quality' is reaching new heights of excellence.

BIRD AVIATION

BIRD AVIATION has strategically integrated our innovative device, the airbeld Eos, within its hangar. This deployment allows BIRD AVIATION to leverage real-time data, enabling consistent control over air quality. The continuous monitoring functionality of airbeld Eos helps minimize potentially damaging risks like corrosion, leading to a safer, more efficient work environment.

Casino di Venezia

Monitoring IAQ in casino has helped to reduce exposure to potential health risks from pollutants by evaluating and managing their HVAC system rewrite it

Nicosia General Hospital

For ensuring patient safety, they were able to detect and address potential contaminants promptly, optimize energy efficiency, and comply with regulatory standards.

Dairy Factory

IAQ (Indoor Air Quality) monitoring in the processing unit in order to prevent the spread of the Particles of hazardous agents (Spores of Salmonella, Fungai, viruses particles, dust)

Our global footprint

CONNECT
WITH US

