

SII CLOUD SYNC

Enabling individuals, groups, or enterprises to access their data from anywhere, at any time, thus enhancing the quality of their business decisions by leveraging up-to-date information

In today's era, many companies are keen on migrating their solutions and entire environments to the Cloud. This endeavor is crucial, but it also demands considerable time and effort to ensure the secure and seamless relocation of all data and processes.

About product

Sii Cloud Sync addresses the situation where a company owns one or more environments (Cloud, on-premise) and requires seamless data and information sharing between different applications. This versatile tool facilitates two-way data synchronization between Cloud platforms (SharePoint Lists, Azure SQL) and on-premise storage (MS SQL), ensuring efficient and reliable data exchange.

Simple

Setting up a new synchronization is few easy steps

No need to worry about the process – synchronization will be done automatically

Single process can be set up in just 5 minutes!

Reliable

Retrying any failed synchronizations

Email notifications about the process

Clean built-in log viewer

Number of failed synchronizations is close to none

Scalable

No hard limit of synchronization processes

No limit of source/target environments

Administer all synchronizations in one place
