BULLETPROOF
365

UNPARALLELED PRODUCTIVITY.
ESSENTIAL MODERN SECURITY.

Hiring a dedicated staff of IT specialists can be costly, especially if you're running a business looking to scale. With managed IT services, Bulletproof becomes an extension of your IT staff of specialists, helping you to embrace today's complex and ever-evolving systems and ensure your day-to-day operations are running as efficiently as possible. Empowering you to do more.

Only Bulletproof 365 (B365) delivers the power of Microsoft 365's advanced productivity solutions and security features together, creating a holistic solution wrapped as a fully managed service for your small to mid-sized organization (SMB).

"Our JEDI team enjoys working closely with the Bulletproof team. They deliver exceptional support to address all our employee IT problems in a timely manner. With just a call, they are quick and effective at identifying the issue and finding proper solutions to fix it.

It brings us peace of mind knowing that we have a team of IT experts available 24/7 to support our company's technology needs when we need it most. Their customer service is easy to use, and we can access information or assistance at any time of the day. We look forward to building a strong partnership with the Bulletproof team."

Brennon Somerville, Finance & Operations Manager, Joint Economic Development Initiative Inc. (JEDI)
