

Copilot for Microsoft 365 Data Security Quick Start

Setting the foundation for data security and governance in preparation for Copilot for Microsoft 365, all in just three weeks!

Secure your Copilot journey with confidence

The “Copilot for Microsoft 365 Data Security Quick Start” is designed to help businesses interested in leveraging Copilot for Microsoft 365 ensure a secure foundation for data protection and governance. As businesses adopt technologies, ensuring proper data security and governance is critical to control data access and prevent information oversharing.

Common challenges

Document security Implementation:

Difficulties implementing and enforcing document security within an IT environment.

Data compliance and governance:

Deficiencies in data compliance and file governance when implementing Copilot for M365 can lead to oversharing and data leakage.

Security breaches and shadow IT:

Improper data compliance standards can result in security breaches.

Quick start benefits

Enhanced document security:

Increased document security and visibility of data governance policies.

Secure copilot integration:

Ensures a secure foundation for integrating Copilot.

Alignment with IT and data:

Improved IT understanding of data policies, and how different departments interact with and share restricted data.

Improved compliance:

Strengthens data compliance standards, reducing the risk of security breaches.

Governance management:

Clear direction on how to manage and enable employees on file governance standards.

Why Softchoice?

- ✓ Microsoft Solutions Partner for Security: This designation demonstrates Softchoice’s capability to offer various security solutions, protecting organizations from compliance risks and identity threats.
- ✓ Expertise: Our deep bench of Microsoft expertise is supported by more than 30 years of selling and servicing Microsoft technology.
- ✓ Track record: We serve more than 2000 customers with cybersecurity needs and complete 300 security projects annually.

Our process

Whether you're unsure where to start on your data estate journey or looking to modernize your current estate to enable data analytics and AI, Softchoice can help you unleash the potential in your data assets.

Assess

Review current data security state and Copilot for M365 ambitions.

Educate

Review policy and provide workshops and recommendations on PII, compliance and standards

Design

Design Copilot data security solution for data access and compliance

Implement

Deploy Copilot for Microsoft 365 data security solution and test

Enable

Educate IT and end users on governance and access policies for Copilot for Microsoft 365

For more information on how to get started with the "Copilot for Microsoft 365 Data Security Quick Start," please contact your Softchoice account manager.