Secure solution for an automated document approval process

Activity Factory is a workflow automation software designed to help organizations spend less time on tedious manual process by automating the execution of business processes and eliminating paper forms, manual routing and approvals.

How Activity Factory Can Help You

- ○ Create an unlimited number of automated workflows and digital forms without the need for IT resources.

- ○ Automated submission, routing and review of documents allow for a much faster approval for digital forms and documents.

- ○ Centralized task lists is shown on the process browser to consolidate task management and identify bottlenecks.

- ○ Drastically reduce paperwork and cut costs by not having to print, copy, and physically store documents.

- ○ Prevent document falsification by securely signing documents with electronic signatures.

- ○ Eliminate unnecessary process delays with email notifications.

- ○ Create or approve transactions from your desktop or mobile phone.

- ○ Better communication and enhanced collaboration within and across departments.