Introduction

Calumo frees users from painful, manual data management tasks by aggregating data from disparate systems into a single source of truth. Automate reporting processes to increase accuracy, reduce risk, and spend more time providing actionable insights to decision makers in your organization.

> "We just completed another forecast in record time... including the board paper, all presented on time and the board signed off. So that was just fantastic for us."
>
> – Rebecca Hann, Reporting Manager, Allens Linklaters (law firm)

What You Get Out of Calumo

Fast, Powerful Reporting

Advanced, easy-to-use reporting functionality allows you to build, analyse, and distribute reports in minutes, using live and secure data. Make data collection and version control a thing of the past with Calumo's powerful solution.

Budgeting and Planning Made Easy

Calumo's business intelligence and financial planning & analysis tools make year-end a breeze. Use the same platform for planning and forecasting as you do for month-end reporting, with instant access to data. Our smart templates allow teams to create budgets, business models, and rolling forecasts that are updated in real-time.

Quick ROI

Calumo is cost-effective and simple to use. Our platform will efficiently integrate with all your existing systems to allow staff to continue their work uninterrupted. Don't spend weeks training staff in tools too complex to be sustainable. If you can use a spreadsheet, you can use Calumo.
> "On a day-to-day basis, having Calumo as part of our infrastructure for the Finance team has enabled us to accelerate the delivery of service to our clients."
> - John Wise, CFO, Acumentis

> ## "I cannot emphasise what a success this has been for us. The results have exceeded our expectations."
>
> - Andrew Chittenden, General Manager, Haven Home Safe

Shorter Closes

Calumo automates all your reporting processes, reducing your month-end effort from days to hours to, in some cases, minutes. Constantly changing figures, like your working capital and target product mix, are updated automatically and are easy to track in your forecasting. With your core system data directly feeding and updating in real-time, you can be confident your numbers are correct.

Enable Collaboration

Using Calumo, your AR people can collaboratively hunt outstanding debt. AP can manage expenses and charges. HR can conduct talent and remuneration review processes. Finance can manage monthly rolling forecasts. Non-financial staff can engage in all manner of data-related activities more quickly and effectively. Costs go down and productivity rises.
