

P 3 M O

P3MO provide an intelligent and informed led approach to transformation that is changing the way the World delivers change. Our range of services connect your people to your organisation, your toolkit to your processes and your technology to your transformation, ensuring that you retain clarity in your data, collaboration across your teams and control of your business change.

Embedding P3MO into your transformation programme allows you to:

- Provide significant bottom line savings, by reducing reliance on 3rd party consultancy
- Improve internal skills and capability, increasing, communication and collaboration across your teams
- Provide continued reduction in future project spend, by retaining lessons learned and project IP
- Reduce project slip and achieve transformation benefits, through greater visibility and speed of decision-making

Services Connect

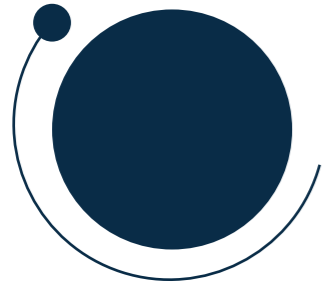

Connect is P3MO's unique cloud collaboration software solution that allows you to visualise, interact with and ultimately control your business transformation from any device and any location. Connect provides business stakeholders and transformation teams with one source of the truth for their transformation data. This enables increased collaboration across your teams, thus easing decision-making whilst reducing the need for multiple analysts to support the governance and reporting that aids those critical data driven decisions.

Connect Provides:

- Data Clarity & Visibility
- Retention of Transformation IP and Lessons Learned
- Digital loop around your transformation
- Real time decision making
- Collaboration across your teams

Transformation Toolkit

Transformation Toolkit is a simple to use hub providing, framework, methods, guidance, training, policies and templates enabling non-transformation specialists to support the delivery your change.

We provide your teams access via a Transformation Toolkit portal to all material and during the implementation phase of our engagement support you with training and coaching to key personnel upskilling them in the core competencies required to support your change.

Our Toolkit provides you with economies of scale by enabling your own internal resources to better support your business transformation projects.

We bring a best in class approach that will accelerate and jump start your transformation through a set of standardised and simple tools, that connect to your transformation processes and enable a self-service approach to transformation delivery.

Connected Delivery

Connected Delivery, is a partnership approach to support you in your transformation journey and complement our Connect and Transformation toolkit services.

Prior to engagement we work with you to identify gaps in your team and align our consultants to support you in these specific roles. We advise and guide you through your transformation, but only for as long as you need our support.

Our goal is to leave your transformation as soon as possible having enabled you to govern and deliver your own change. We do this by improving the capabilities and utilisation of your transformation through Connect coupled with a true partnership approach with P3MO. Together we provide you the platform to greatly reduce your cost and dependency on third party providers whilst enabling you to retain control of your programme and transformation spend, ultimately delivering EBIT and shareholder value
