

CopilotBuilder has enterprise-level agreements with model vendors to ensure that requests and responses are not maintained or used for model training.

Large Language Models do not have access to uploaded documents. The Memory Service retrieves embeddings and produces answers.