POWER BLOX

About this App

This Powerblox let's you manage different flavors of prices and reductions on your sales and purchases.

This powerblox let's you have multiple discounts on your sales and purchase prices.

It also allows you to create a 'maintenance-friendly pricing and reduction structure for your customers by using multiple groups for your different items.

The tool also allows you, when you update your purchase prices, an automatic recalculation of your sales prices.

On all levels, the tool shows you your margin so price calculations can be done very transparent.
