

Celebrate your achievements and feel empowered

Any time you learn a new skill or earn a certification in your field, it's an accomplishment worth sharing with your network.

Get noticed.

Highlight your learning achievements.

Help boost your career potential.

---

According to LinkedIn, members who list at least five skills on their profile are messaged up to 27 times more by other LinkedIn members<sup>1</sup> than those who don't, and they receive up to 17 times more profile views.<sup>2</sup>

Start sharing on LinkedIn today!

STEPS TO SHARE YOUR MICROSOFT CERTIFICATION ON LINKEDIN

If you haven't claimed your badge, start with step 1. If you've already claimed your badge, skip to step 2.

1. View your certification on your certification dashboard and claim your badge.
2. Share your badge either through your certification dashboard or by following the email you receive from Microsoft after you have earned a certification.

For more information, check out the digital badging FAQs.

STEPS TO SHARE YOUR MICROSOFT SKILLS ON LINKEDIN

Add skills to your LinkedIn profile by following these instructions on LinkedIn.

 Continue your learning journey on Microsoft Learn

---

<sup>1</sup>LinkedIn, "What You Need to Know To Get Hired This Month: September 2020," September 2020

<sup>2</sup>LinkedIn, "Tips to Keep Your Profile Fresh | Official LinkedIn Blog," April 2018