Strengthen your employee networks

Your employee networks are the foundation for connectedness and transparency at your org. Pingboard helps you strengthen, elevate, and invest in your org's formal networks (like employee resource groups) and especially informal networks (like work friendships) to help people feel connected, engaged, and see opportunities for themselves to remain at and advance within your organization.

Make Onboarding Better

Research shows<sup>1</sup> that new hires can take almost 2 years to get fully up to speed at your company. We're not knocking external hires; they bring new ideas and help teams grow. Pingboard helps you onboard new people more quickly, enabling them to understand their coworkers, teams, and the broader org so they can have impact right from the start.
