Couchdrop | Overview

Key Benefits

- Easy to upload and download files and folders to storage platforms
- Complete file system support; S/FTP, SCP, Rsync, SMB/CIFS and NFS
- Secure and isolate users to a specific directories with granular permissions
- Reduce overhead by utilizing Couchdrop as your managed cloud solution
- Lock down and secure access by filtering on source IP addresses
- Speed up file transfer by emailing files directly into cloud storage
- Complete file sharing with password protected and temporary links
- Upload portal for internal and external users
- Have an extra peace of mind by having your own dedicated presence
- Add that extra layer of security with 2-factor authentication
- Automate your workflow by harnessing our fully featured API
- Caters for your compliance needs - HIPAA/GDPR compliant

Couchdrop is a fully cloud native platform which ensures the platform can remain agile, scalable and provide a dedicated presence globally to ensure data sovereingty laws and requirements are met.

The Virtual File System Fabric

Couchdrop is your virtual file system built for the cloud. Its potential is huge, and the use cases are unlimited. Couchdrop offers you a fully managed cloud native solution that enables you to transfer files where you want them.

With Couchdrop's API you can create users, manage permissions, connect and disconnect storage and do just about anything you would expect from a cloud native file share and transfer server.

Couchdrop Advantages

	Simple and user friendly web interface
	Make it yours by using your brand
	Minutes to configure and get going
	Affordable plans to keep costs low
	Bring your own cloud storage

About Couchdrop

Couchdrop Limited is headquarted in Christchurch, New Zealand. Couchdrop was founded in 2018 and is trusted by thousands of customers worldwide. Couchdrop's infrastructure is located throughout the globe to meet security and performance requirements.

For more information visit couchdrop.io or email sales@couchdrop.io