Cindy Lyman, CFO, Associated Industries of Massachusetts

"I know Microsoft makes sure we have security experts and the latest technology on our side. I feel like our data is better protected in the cloud, whether from natural disasters or malicious attacks. "

Austin Brinson, VP of Data Analytics, B.GOOD

"The nice thing with EMS is that it is not all or nothing...we are able to keep taking these baby steps, and get closer and closer to where we really should be, without having a dramatic, instant impact on our users...I'm not concerned about security on a day-to-day basis anymore."
