

Physician engagement the way it was meant to be.

Before Innovaccer, the industry was forced to access bits and pieces of electronic healthcare analytics and referrals on disparate applications. Thanks to InNote, they can now see the big picture. InNote brings a full view of the patient right to the moment of care. It helps networks cut through the noise and enables them to close the gaps in real time to deliver quality outcomes with total efficiency. It streams actionable insights within the EHR, and gives care teams a comprehensive history of patients in a way everyone can really appreciate - all in one place.

Physician networks empowered by the ultimate automated assistant.

Real-time care gaps. Potential coding opportunities. Patient education opportunities. Get all of it with InNote and drive alignment with physicians. Track performance and number of care gaps closed, know your efficiency across cost, quality, and patient experience, and deliver an overview of physician performance to ensure alignment with the overall network goal. The healthcare information superhighway is now open. welcome to InNote.
