Empower your Organization with Enterprise AI Bot on Microsoft Teams

44 million
Daily active users

Our Enterprise AI Bot on Microsoft Teams integrates with ERP and non-ERP business applications to create conversational experience that interprets the user's intent, automating processes and delivering contextual responses to text commands. Broaden your access to business applications with intelligent assistant to

- Drive operational efficiencies by automating at scale and streamlining repetitive tasks associated with marketing, sales, IT help desk, HR management, recruiting, and ERP, organizations save time and money that can then be allocated to other work
- Improve engagement and productivity by eliminating the need to switch between applications
- Make better, faster decisions by having critical information at your fingertips
- Enable employee and self-service with natural language search capabilities and intelligent FAQ responses

Extensively customized solution that gives a personalized experience across various business functions of an organization at all levels because employee experience is just as important as customer experience.