

People love using Microsoft Teams. However, every time a team is created, a 'group' and a lot of underlying assets like mailboxes, SharePoint sites, planners and documents are created as well... Managing all this content is near impossible. GroupMGR is a governance tool which gives you that much needed overview of all existing groups, their users and related assets.

