

DataSight for Microsoft Dynamics 365

According to IDG, 70 % of organizations think they do not fully utilize their data. Building insightful reports that gives management a view to insights is a long process that can take months. Innofactor provides a packaged solution that manages to squeeze three-year report development into months. DataSight is built to support Microsoft Dynamics Finance as master data source, but in future variety of data sources will be supported.

